Through ... a poem by Jed Thomas - contributed by Carolyn Thomas

Through the dark window of poetry
Through the tall trees of the hour
We cannot begin to understand
The great mystique and power
Through which all things were created

Through the permanent stain of reality
Through fantasy's changing clear face
We will never find the answer to
How great is that grace
Through which all things were created?

Through ourselves and way beyond
Through the spirit that comes from above
We may show our appreciation
For the infinite amount of love
Through which all things were created

Share your heart with someone ...

Send a Valentine to someone in our parish. Please pay close attention to those living in assisted living, like John Langfeldt, and John and Wanda Hilderbrand, and Skip Fisher who resides at the Veterans Home. If you don't have a parish list, there are extra copies available at the church. You may know of other people who are currently living at assisted living facilities who may be on lock down during the increase in virus cases. You may know people who just need a big physical 'hug' and a mailed valentine will help bring a smile to their face.

I mistakenly placed John Hilderbrand's name on the departed list when someone mentioned he had died in December, but the wonderful news is, he is doing well.

Share your heart this Valentine season, you can make someone's day very special by doing so.

Peace be with you, Marilyn+

Sacred Journey meeting dates

February 13 (Session 7: Selective Access 1830s-1960s) [this session has more video than usual]

March 6 (Session 8: Divisions in Present Day White America)

March 20 (Session 9: Racism's Long Life)

ORIGINAL WASCO COUNTY COURTHOUSE - 1859

ORIGINAL COURTHOUSE REGIONAL HISTORY FORUM SERIES FOR 2022

Programs begin at 1:30 p.m. each Saturday in February.
COVID precautions = no gatherings at the 1859 Courthouse.

Join programs via Zoom: <http://OWCCZoomLink.info>
(To attend by phone, leave a message at 541 296-4798 and we'll call back with directions)

Saturday, February 5

'Finding David Douglas' — an Environmentalist Before His Time
Lois Leonard capped a distinguished career in the field of public history and museums by directing and producing this video. It's a compelling tale of adventure and discovery following the intrepid 19th century Scots botanist/explorer from his native Scotland to North America and beyond.

Saturday, February 12

The Pineapple War: Labor Action in The Dalles
Those who read local newspapers or listen to local radio know Rodger Nichols. Our local historian and member of the Courthouse board tells of the time The Dalles made national headlines. A 1949 longshoreman strike in Hawaii led to a riot in our fair city when a boatload of pineapples showed up!

Saturday, February 19

John S. Woodruff: Hermit of the Cave
Georga Foster is president of the Columbia Gorge Genealogical Society and volunteers at the Discovery Center Library. There was a man who lived in a cave above the Catholic Cemetery in The Dalles. Over a century has passed and he still is a subject of conversation and speculation. Georga's program explores the life, family, and past of John Woodruff, the hermit of Hermit's Cave.

Saturday, February 26

Lorena Trickey: Oregon's World Champion Cowgirl
Leaders of Crown Point Country Historical Society Steve Lehl and Chuck Rollins present the cowgirl honored in the National Cowboy Hall of Fame. Lorena was born in a small town at the west end of the Gorge, became one of the great female competitors in the first Golden Age of rodeo, performed as a stunt double in Hollywood, stabbed one husband, then remarried and became a prospector and miner.

Regional History Forum Programs, now in the series' 43rd year, are free; however, donations toward the operation of the Original Courthouse are gladly accepted. Send to P.O. Box 839, The Dalles.
